SICCI BIENNIAL CONFERENCE 2011

Guest-of-Honour

Mr S Iswaran

Senior Minister of State
Ministry of Trade and Industry, and Ministry of Education, Singapore

Suntec Convention & Exhibition Centre Singapore

Monday, 28 March 2011

The Singapore Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SICCI) is pleased to present its International Conference entitled "India-Singapore-China: Business Opportunities in the Trilateral Relationship" in Singapore on 28 March 2011. More than 400 local and international participants are expected at this conference dedicated to linking two of the fastest growing countries in the world, China and India, through Singapore.

The sterling cast of local and international speakers and the expertly-crafted programme will deliver in-depth and thought-provoking insights on China and India and the significant role that Singapore can play to bring the two countries closer to each other for the larger economic benefit of Asia. Join local and global leaders as they present new perspectives on businesses and fresh strategic ideas to help you make sense of the changing market landscapes in India and China that will pose challenges as well as offer important opportunities and prospects.

Key Areas of Focus

- Economic Challenges and Opportunities in India and China
- Socio-cultural (Mis)perceptions and Realities in India and China
- Rise of India & China: Impact on the World Order
- The Next Wave of Economic Opportunities in India and China: New Regions, New Markets
- Legal and Human Resource Management Challenges in India and China
